John's Jaunt

Welcome to the October issue of the RIPS AW and John's Jaunt. Fall is upon us, although it seems to be warmer than it has been all summer! With that we have some guild business to attend to in the next couple of months. First, we will be taking nominations for the Woodworker of the Year award at the October meeting, to then be voted on at the November meeting.

decent storage. In order to assist the board in making this decision you should have received an advisory poll in the mail. Please take a minute to be sure that you have returned it.

We have finally worked out some of the details for raffling off the chainsaw carved eagle from our June meeting. In October we should begin selling tickets with the drawing to be held at the January meeting. All proceeds will be used to enhance our library.

The award will be presented at the Holiday Party. Second, we will be voting for our 2010 board in November. All positions are one year terms according to our by-laws but there is no limit to number of terms. We are always looking for fresh ideas so if you have any questions or interest in any of the board positions let us know.

The big topic of discussion at the September meeting was where the guild should meet in 2010. There were some good comments made about what we should be looking for and where. Criteria that I feel are important are location, affordability, scheduling and storage for our library. Our library is a valuable asset to our members but does require

And finally a few comments on my latest project. Like many of you, I have a list of projects that will keep me busy for many years to come! One of those is to make display shelves for my daughters' rooms to show off their trophies and ribbons from their various activities. Well, Erica came home with another half-dozen ribbons and a trophy from her latest horse show this past weekend so I really need to get moving! A recent magazine had an article on a picture frame shelf that looks interesting and not terribly complicated. With a few modifications it should do the job!

Happy woodworking! -John

Program Notes

Thomas Schuppe, the fall guy

It is fall and time to get in touch with the beauty, strength, and vibrant colors of our

Wisconsin forests. It is also time to design woodworker projects that can provide that same admiration. This is what Tom Loesser from the University of Wisconsin has done thru his creation of furniture over the past twenty years. As stated in his essays, he has taken his kinetic designs of furniture to another level. He has romanced the surface of wood with an adventure in color. He has the inside story on studio furniture and he has lived a life of finding his own direction in life thru woodworking. Come and visit with him at our October meeting.

Friday, November 6th, will be our regular meeting because Garrett Hack will be in town to present and then follow up with a two day workshop. The workshop will be on designing and making drawers. Members from last year's workshop asked for this training. Ten guild members are the maximum group size. Early signup is recommended if you want to reserve your spot.

Tic Tock who is making a clock? This is the subject at our January meeting. Anything & Everything about clocks is the subject by William Galinsky.

Feb brings Chris Moore from Madison Wisconsin to present the making of musical instruments'.

Feb is also the time for the Woodworkers show at State Fair. Sign up for a time slot and get into the show free.

March brings Frank Klaus, a renowned woodworker for a Friday night meeting and Saturday and Sunday workshop. Sign up is required for this workshop.

It is important to sign up for our annual Christmas party. The cost: $25.00 per person.

Now is the time to start making toys. Several Guild members have already been hard at work at Woodcraft's shop on Monday's from 9:00 to 3:00. We could use a few more volunteers at Woodcraft.

As you all know we are in the process of deciding where we will hold our Guild meeting starting in January. Please stay tuned for the Guild's decision.

Remember elections are upon us. New blood is important for the vitality of our group, please don't hesitate to put your name on a ballot. I will support and help anyone interested to be a partner as program director or any other post.

Participation is the key to a strong and healthy club, please do your part.

Milwaukee Fine Furnishing Show

This notice came to us from Michael Doerr

Our Milwaukee Fine Furnishings & Fine Craft Show will be held October 3 & 4 in The Garage - a special exhibit & event hall - at the new Harley-Davidson Museum site at the crossroads of 6th & Canal Streets in Milwaukee! This is a venue and date change for the show!

These fun live edge end tables were designed and handcrafted by David Stine of David Stine Woodworking in Illinois.

We moved the show “out of the Wisconsin Summer season” to the first weekend in October and from the Midwest Airlines Center, where the show has been held for the first 3 years, to The Garage at the new Harley-Davidson Museum which is a more intimate setting but still open & airy with lots of activity & amenities.

ALSO the Green Bay Packers are NOT playing on that Sunday but rather on Monday Night Football so NO EXCUSES!

HELPFUL INFORMATION!

- FREE PARKING for over 500 cars!
- Cafe Racer serves breakfast and lunch
- Motor, a restaurant & bar, serves lunch and dinner
- Saturday 10-6, Sunday 10-5, Tickets: $10 for Adults
- Furniture, accessories, fine art & craft.
- Public & trade invited - wholesale & retail buyers welcome!
- All work is for sale, order or commission.

Check it out at www.finefurnishingsshow.com

Rockler Woodworking and Hardware is located at 845 North Mayfair Road, 414-774-1882.

WWG: Behind the Scenes

What does it take to run the Wisconsin

Woodworker's Guild? Below you will find a list of tasks and the people that have contributed their time and effort in 2009. I apologize if I have overlooked anyone. I present this list for a few reasons:

First, to recognize and thank those people who have worked so hard thus far this year.

Second, to draw your attention to the fact that a number of names are showing up many times in different areas.

And third, to solicit your help in taking on some of these tasks.

The more people that help out makes the load lighter for everyone. Please consider where you can contribute.

Tom Loesser Speaker for October meeting

Tom Loesser has been head of the wood/furniture program at the University of Wisconsin-Madison since 1991. He designs and builds one-of-a-kind functional objects that are often carved and painted and always based on the history of design and furniture-making as a starting point for developing new form and meaning. His artwork has been included in over 200 national and international exhibitions since 1981.

He is represented in the collections of several museums and universities including the Museums of Fine Arts in Boston and Houston, The Renwick Gallery, The Cooper Hewitt Museum, The Yale University Art Gallery, The Milwaukee Museum of Art and the Brooklyn Museum. He has received four Visual Artist Fellowship Grants from the National Endowment for the Arts. In 1993 he spent 6 months in Japan on an NEA Creative Artist Exchange Fellowship. More information about his work is available at www.tomloesser.com.
